

Addison County Anti-Cruelty Coalition Investigative Model

* It is strongly recommended that animals not be seized without a warrant unless immediate action is necessary to protect the animal's life. The statute also requires seized animals to immediately be seen by a licensed veterinarian for medical attention, stabilization and assessment.